

The Lockdown Experience

Boris holds us captive in our own homes.

As we stoop into relentless slumber.

Nowhere to roam.

Nowhere to wander.

Online tirelessly on Teams.

Looking longingly out the window.

Home learning is mean!

For excitement, I want a pet dingo!

Away from family and friends.

I feel like it will never end.

Stuck inside with my family.

Only going to the park.

The NHS slowed Corona down.

Corona means crown!

Many volunteers helped give the life-saving vaccine.

So, ALWAYS keep your hands clean!
