Learning Project (To be done over the week)

This week's project is based around 'CHANGES'. You will think about changes that have happened and changes to come.

History

Write a timeline of significant events in your family's life. (You may remember this task from the FAMILY topic earlier on during lockdown.) Can you add anything new since the last time you did this task?

Art/DT/Music

Draw different pictures of a human being at different stages of their life.

Draw a 4 seasons picture like the one here.

A chameleon can change the colour of its skin. Colour in the chameleon pictures (below) so that it looks different in each one.

How has technology changed over the years? How did people listen to music years ago compared to now?

Geography

Have you or a family member noticed how Harlow has changed over the years? What was it like 'in the olden days' compared to now?

How have countries changed over the years? Which countries exist now but weren't around 100 years ago?

Science

How does the human body change as it gets older? Write down the different stages of life.

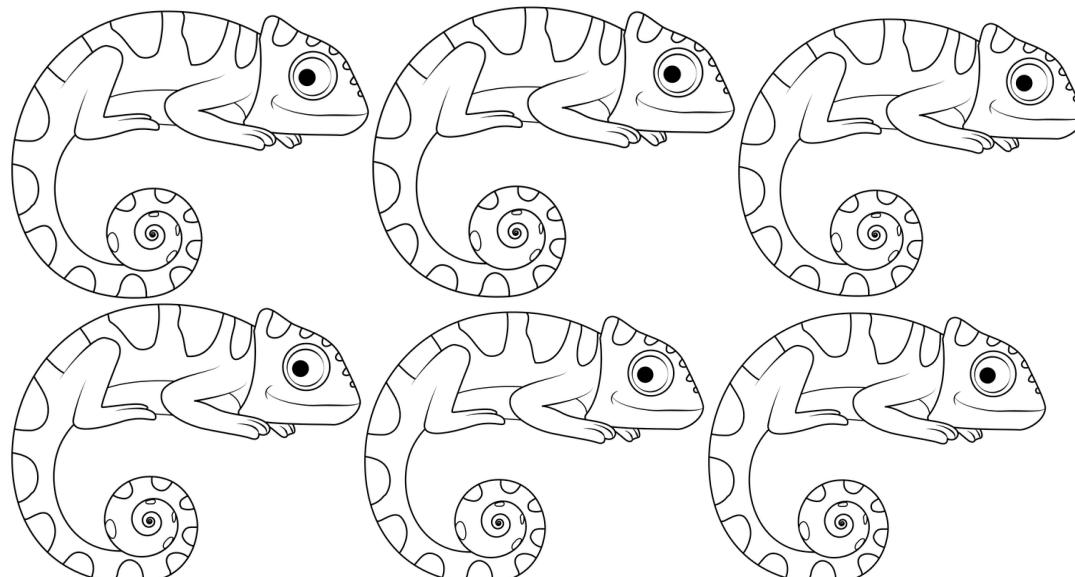

How does a caterpillar change? Write down the different stages of a caterpillar's life.

Speaking and Listening

Speak to a member of your family about what things have changed since they were your age? Do they think things are better or worse now?

Remember to read every day and we would love to see some of your lovely work.

Learning Project - Week 12

Changes - Year 3

Read the short story. Then answer each question.

Changes

Did you know that heating and cooling can change objects?

Some changes can be reversed, which means the object can go back to the way it was before it was heated up or cooled down.

Other changes cannot be reversed, which means the object cannot go back to how it was before it was heated up or cooled down.

Water can go through reversible changes when it is heated or cooled. When water is heated up, it will start to boil, and then turn into water vapour. If you collect the water vapour and cool it down, it will turn back into water. When water is cooled down a lot, it will turn into ice. If you heat the ice back up, it will turn into water again.

Have you ever watched an adult cook an egg? Eggs go through a change that cannot be reversed when they are heated. When the liquid egg white is heated, it turns into a solid. If you let the egg cool back down, though, the egg white will not turn back into a liquid.

Questions:

1. What does it mean if a change can be reversed? Colour the sentence that told you.

2. Are there changes that cannot be reversed? Give an example.

3. Describe how heating and cooling water changes it.

4. Can you think of another object that goes through a change that cannot be reversed when it is heated or cooled? Describe the change.
